General Maxwell D. Taylor
Chief of Staff
United States Army
Department of the Army
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Max:

While I have had my office get in touch with your office to regret our inability to attend your reception for the military attaches and their wives on 6 February, I wanted to pass this personal note to you.

I have accepted an invitation from General Laffey to visit again in his Headquarters in Omaha, as it has been some time since my last visit.

Many thanks for your kind invitation, and I hope we will be able to get together in the near future.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
